Dear Clerk of the Court:

This letter is to inform you that my mother Maria Forman is under a doctor's care and taking morphine. The doctor has increased her dosage several times because of the constant pain she is in. It is my opinion that she is presently incapable of continuing her lawsuit. I am informed the caption is United States of America v. Forman, Case #: 2:09-cv-00444-SRB.

I have power of attorney for my mother. A copy is enclosed for your reference. I am told that the Court is aware that she is indigent and considered "uncollectible" by the Internal Revenue Service. I am also aware that she has asked the Court to provide legal assistance for her and the Court has refused.

I would like to know the Court's intentions now that the Court has been informed that my mother is physically and mentally unable to continue in this case.

I have been advised to go to my Congressman and the media with this problem. However, before I consider my options to assist my Mother I would like to know what the Court intends to do about this problem.

Please inform me as soon as possible whether the Court will now somehow find the means to provide legal assistance for her under these new developments or what else the Court has in mind regarding an indigent, incompetent Defendant who has been declared uncollectible by the IRS.

Yours truly,

Dulce F. Shimkus
