NOTICE TO THE COURT, CLERK OF COURT and UNITED STATES ATTORNEY

This motion is filed for above caption hearing in the district court of the United States, and not the "United States District Court". If the recipient clerk is unable to process this pleading, please direct it to the proper official.

MOTION TO DISMISS

Comes now Janice Sue Taylor, a living woman, not a corporation or other type of artificially created person, and not domiciled in the District of Columbia; hereinafter the MOVANT, by Special Visitation or Appearance, not granting jurisdiction nor recognizing this court's right to try her; but intervening in a foreign jurisdiction on behalf of the Alleged Defendant, PERSONA JANICE SUE TAYLOR, hereinafter the Accused. Movant is not trained in the law, nor is She an attorney, nor is She appearing Pro Se; but rather of right in Sui Juris.

Movant respectfully moves this court to DISMISS the INDICTMENT of March 30, 2007, per FRCrP Rule 12(b)(3)(A) in that Plaintiff is without capacity to indict; in the nature of FRCvP Rule 9(a) in that Plaintiff is without capacity to sue.

The complaint purports to be a criminal action initiated by a Plaintiff, "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA", for alleged violations of laws or administrative codes of the federal United States government and asking for imprisonment. The Movant has no knowledge of any statute, rule, regulation or other provision if law that would permit action against her by an entity known as "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA".

Legal Address. Commencing, in suf. det., at w 1/4 corner of section 26, T.2S.- R.6E., G & SRB & M, thence S. 0° 07' 22" W. to 332.12 ft. to SW corner of section 26, thence bearing 0° S. 7' 22" W. from SW. corner of section 26, 332.12 ft. distant therefrom, thence southerly of N. 1 The Movant is charged with not filing tax returns for the years 2003 to 2006. Movant is not
2 sure which forms Plaintiff is referring to, as it is not specifically spelled out in the Indictment.
3 However, Movant has filed her returns to the best of her ability. SEE EXHIBIT E, Titled 4 Firm offer to Settle.

5 This Statement in Lieu of Return was sent in to the Director of International Operations, and 6 Agent David J. Villaverde #86-16794 on April 29, 2005. It covered the years from 1997 to 7 2005. Movant is submitting a Certified Copy, Exhibit E, of the entire document, which proves 8 that Movant's belief and standing is correct.

9 The well known principle of Res Judicata, Collateral estoppel applies in this instance. The 10 IRS did not rebut any of Movant's claims, even though they were given the opportunity. Which 11 only fortifies Movant's belief are true and accurate.

12 The opportunity to rebut being lost since 2005, this Indictment is founded on fraud of the 13 court. The Prosecutor had this information before the Grand Jury and Movant is sure he never 14 even showed it to them or explained it to them. Which was his duty!

15 How can you indict someone when they are writing to the top Chief with sincere concern of 16 handling their IRS affairs correctly? Movant has done everything in her power to get the IRS to 17 answer Movant's questions about the massive codes and regulations that govern the IRS. The 18 IRS has failed and will not answer any questions that would lead one to the truth of the situation.
19 Instead they hide behind the judicial system and put the fear of incarceration or worse in those 20 that ask important essential questions. Even the judicial system is afraid of them, unless they are 21 in the pie cutting.

22 Movant is re-entering the pages from the Document here to prove the fraud that has been 23 placed on the court, and the Certified copy you can find in the Exhibits #E.

Firm Offer To Settle (Pay)

STATEMENT IN LIEU OF RETURN FOR TAX YEARS 1997 THROUGH 2005

Pursuant to 26 USC § 6011, 6012, 6103, 6213(g) and 7203.

Dear Director,

This is a return, for the years 1997 through 2005 as defined at 26 USC § 6103 and 6213(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, and 26 CFR § 301.72 16-1(b)(1). This return is filed in lieu of an Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 series and satisfies the requirements of IRC §6012. I have read the law and understand that all past filings of Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 that I have filed, have been in error, and signed by mistake not realizing they were signed under penalty of perjury. I, Sue Taylor, am not an officer, agent or employee who is under oath of office and I have not taken any oath prior to signing the past 1040 forms. It is my belief that fraud vitiates all transactions, and all the former filings were as a result of constructive fraud and therefore invalid. I am therefore declaring (claiming) the withdrawal of my signature, endorsements and waiver from all previous 1040, 1040A forms submitted under fraud to IRS, and rendering them void and non-effective. My past misunderstanding of the law does not in any way reflect recognition on my part of any legal requirement or authorization to file Form 1040 and/or 1040A and/or 1040EZ and/or 1040SS. The assigned OMB number identifies the class of individual who is required to file those forms. I'm claiming I am not of that class of individual defined.

Title 26 USC § 6012, states that every person liable for any income (Internal Revenue) tax must file a return or statement as provided by law. For the reasons stated herein, I believe that I am not liable for any Internal Revenue income tax or filing requirement. However, this statement is filed in order to avoid ambiguity or confusion regarding our filing requirement and status, as well as to avoid any possible sanctions for failure to file. If I am incorrect in my understanding, I direct you to immediately inform Me, Sue Taylor, of any mistake and identify the Form or Statement I am required to file, if any.

Return. - The term "return" includes any return, statement, schedule, or list, and any amendment or supplement thereto, filed with respect to any tax imposed by Subtitle A or B or chapter 41,42,43, or 44. This Statement complies with all legal requirements and is a statement or return within thy meaning of 26 USC §§6011, 6012 and, 6213(g);

1 In Commissioner v. Lane-Ills Co., 321 U.S. 219, 222, 64 S.Ct. 511, 513 (1944), the Court noted
2 that section 54 of the 1939 Internal Revenue Code, the predecessor for Internal Revenue Code §
3 6001, related to the filing requirement; see also Updike v. United States, 8 F.2d 913,915 (8th
4 Cir.1925). In True v. United States, 354 F.2d 323, 324 (Ct.Cl 1965), United States v. Carbon,
5 260 F.Supp. 423,425 (E.D.N.Y. 1966), White v. Commissioner, 72 U.S.T.C. 1126, 1129 (1979),
6 McCaskill v. Commissioner, 77 U.S.T.C. 689, 698 (1981), Counts v. Commissioner, 774 F.2d
7 426,427(11th Cir. 1985), Blount v. Commissioner, 86 U.S.T.C. 383,386(1986), and Beard v.
8 Commissioner, 793 F.2d 139(6th Cir. 1986), these courts held that Internal Revenue Code §6011
9 related to the filing requirement. In United States v. Moore, 627 F.2d 830, 834 (7th Cir.1980),
10 United States v. DaIs, 951 F.2d 1189, 1192, n. 3(10th Cir. 1991), and United States v. Hicks, 947
11 F.2d 1356, 1360 (9th Cir. 1991), those courts held that Internal Revenue Code § 6011 and 6012
12 governed this duty. In contrast, the cases of Steinbrecher v. Commissioner, 712 F.2d 195, 198
13 (5th Cir. 1983), United States v. Bolrs, 920 F.2d 220, 222 (4th Cir. 1990), and United States v.
14 Neff, 954 F.2d 698,699 (11th Cir. 1992), held that only section 6012 governed this duty. But in 15 United States v. Pilcher, 672 F.2d 875,877 (11th Cir. 1982), none of the above sections are 16 mentioned and it was held that §7203 required returns to be filed. It is apparent that there exists 17 an extreme vicissitude of opinion in the federal courts regarding which statutes govern the 18 requirement to file income tax returns.

19 If the Federal District Courts, Tax Court, Court of Claims and the Supreme Court cannot 20 definitively decide the fundamental question as to which section of the Internal Revenue Code
21 requires the filing of an income tax return, whether the tax imposed is an excise or a direct tax, it
22 is obvious that the average American, not educated in the law, will have great difficulty in 23 understanding the tax imposed and this basic question on filing requirements, the species of the 24 tax, among many other questions.

25 Since the courts are so deeply split over this issue, how can anyone understand the law in an 26 atmosphere of judicial incertitude? Due process requires that the law be such that the duty 27 imposed is unambiguous and those subject to it are able to understand the law. This is NOT the 28 case with Title 26 USC or 26 CFR implementing regulations.

29 In 1913, a debate on the Senate floor, regarding the first income tax act under the 16th
30 Amendment was held. Senator Elihu Root commented about the complexity of that first law:

1 "I guess you will have to go to jail. If that is the result of not understanding the Income Tax Law
2 I shall meet you there. We shall have a merry, merry time, for all of our friends will be there. It
3 will be an intellectual center, for no one understands the Income Tax Law except persons who 4 have not sufficient intelligence to understand the questions that arise under it"

5 All the confusion over an eighty-page Act then, is exponentially compounded by the current ten
6 thousand page, plus, Internal Revenue Code 26 USC, along with more than thirty thousand pages
7 of implementing Internal Revenue regulations 26 CFR and some, unauthorized from 27 CFR.

8 In light of this judicial uncertainty, I am doing my best to comprehend and comply with the 9 law and regulations. In light of the courts' and indeed of the Congress' inability to comprehend
10 and agree with the interpretations within the Internal Revenue laws, certainly I cannot be held
11 responsible for any misunderstanding of Internal Revenue law, that I may have. Since there 12 are no consistent rulings upon which I can depend, I must do what I consider as true, correct and 13 lawful. The Internal Revenue Services' guidance to Me in this matter is absolutely essential and 14 is hereby requested.

15 Title 26 USC § 7701(a) (14) defines a taxpayer as follows: The term "taxpayer" means any 16 person subject to any "Internal Revenue Tax." The phrase "Internal Revenue Tax" does not 17 appear in the Internal Revenue Code until Subtitle. E: Alcohol, Tobacco and Certain Other 18 Excise Taxes. 26 USC § 5005, entitled "Persons Liable for Tax", provides that proprietors of 19 distilled spirit plants are the persons liable for "Internal Revenue Tax". Since I am not an 20 operator of a distilled spirit plant, I am not, by that definition, subject to any "Internal Revenue 21 tax", and therefore, I am not, by definition, a "taxpayer".

22 Any past admissions that I was, or am at present, a "taxpayer" have been. made in error and 23 according to the court: "In the interpretation of statutes levying taxes, it is the established rule 24 not to extend their provisions, by implication, beyond the clear import of the language used, or 25 to enlarge their operations so as to embrace mailers not specifically pointed out". Gould v.
26 Gould, 245 U.S., 151.

27 Therefore, I am not authorized to file any form in the Form 1040 series or any other form 28 pertaining to any internal revenue tax for the following reasons:

- 29 1. I have not been able to identify any IRS form in the 1040 series, which displays an OMB
30 number relevant to 26 CFR §1.1-1 and §1.11-1. I cannot file under penalty of perjury a form,
31 which I know to be the incorrect form.

2. I find no section of Subtitle A which makes me liable for Subtitle A (Income) taxes and meets the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act in providing an OMB number which ties a liability section with Form 1040. Therefore, I firmly believe I have no liability for Subtitle A taxes, and therefore no requirement or authorization to file Form 1044 or any other form relative to Subtitle A (Tax Class 2).

This return has been mailed to the proper address published in 26 CFR, with copies to any other interested parties. The Internal Revenue Service Centers no longer have the authority to receive and process income tax returns. Delegation Order 99 which authorized the Service Centers to receive and process returns, was declared obsolete, such authority having been transferred via the functional statement published in IRM 1100, at § 1117.22.

The IRM § 1117.22 has also been declared obsolete, and no authority has superseded or replaced it. The only office listed as authorized to receive returns is the Director of International Operations according to 26 CFR § 1.6091-3.

Regulation at 26 CFR § 1.6091-4 provides an alternative to filing a return in a required district. Therefore, if this return, is filed in the incorrect venue, the director will please forward this return pursuant to 26 CFR § 1.6091-4(a) (2) to the proper destination and inform, me of that location.

As there are presently no “Internal Revenue Districts” authorized by law, it is difficult for one to know exactly what is to be filed, when or where. Perhaps a review of the following will explain My, Sue Taylor’s, confusion with the matter:

Title 26 USC § 7621 requires the President to establish “Internal Revenue Districts”. Even if I wanted to volunteer, it would be impossible to comply with any alleged requirement to file Form 1040, in that the Internal Revenue Service has no “Internal Revenue Districts” assigned and therefore no District Directors exist to whom I could possibly send a return Form 1040 as per the following:

1. Section 7621— Internal Revenue Districts.
(a) Establishment of Revenue Districts.

The President shall establish convenient “Internal Revenue Districts” for the purpose of administering the Internal Revenue laws. The President may from time to time alter such districts.

1 Via Reorganization Plan 3 of 1940, President Roosevelt reassigned duties of the Federal Alcohol
2 Administration to the Bureau of Internal Revenue, thereby abolishing an agency Congress
3 established by law in 1935. Then via Reorganization Plan 26 of 1950, President Harry S. Truman
4 abolished offices of Internal Revenue assessors and collectors that had existed since 1862
5 legislation. But these changes did not adversely affect the American people at large.

6 Since implementation of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, there have been no "Federal 7 Internal Revenue Districts" in the several States. The Internal Revenue Code limits IRS
8 assessment and collection activity to whatever Revenue Districts are established under authority
9 of 26 USC § 7621. The vast majority of Internal Revenue Code taxing authority is geographical 10 in nature and is limited to the District of Columbia and insular possessions of the United States,
11 exclusive of the 50 States of the Union.

12 In 1998, via Executive Order #10289, as amended, President William J. Clinton authorized the 13 Secretary of the Treasury to establish Revenue Districts under authority of section 7621 of the 14 Internal Revenue Code. Although section 7621 is not listed in the Parallel Table of Authorities
15 and Rules, E.O. #10289 is listed. The implementing regulation is Title 19 of the Code of Federal 16 Regulations (CFR) Part 101. The regulation establishes "Customs Collection Offices" in each
17 state of the Union; it does not establish "Internal Revenue Districts".

18 A note at Part 301.7621-1 of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations confirms that "E.O.
19 #10289 is the only authority for establishing revenue districts".

20 The Internal Revenue Service has no jurisdiction in Arizona State and other States of the Union 21 to enforce the Internal Revenue Tax laws, as there are no "Internal Revenue Districts" pursuant 22 to section §7621, within the 50 Union states.

23 The Federal tax enigma is resolved to a certain extent in understanding that there is another 24 application of tax other than the geographical. Most of the reorganization plans, executive 25 orders, etc. are intra-governmental in nature.

26 The application is for government agencies and personnel, not the general population of the 50
27 Union States of the United States of America.

28 The term "income" is not defined in the Internal Revenue Code; see United States v. Ballard, 535
29 F.2d 400, 404 (8th Cir. 1976). I did not receive "income" as defined in the Code of Federal 30 Regulations at 26 CFR § 1.643(b)-1, which is the only definition of "income", published in the 31 Internal Revenue Code or its corresponding Internal Revenue regulations.

1 In Nicholas v. Fifteenth Street Inv. Co., (1939, CA10 Colo.) 105 F2d 289, 39-2 USTC ¶9571, it
2 was ruled that the power of Congress to lay and collect tax on income cannot be extended by 3 legislative definition of the term "income".

4 Since I did not receive "income" or income from any "source", as identified by the Secretary
5 for purposes of the income tax, I did not receive "gross income", and did not have "taxable
6 income". I have had no 'earned income', or income from any "source" as defined by 26 USC §
7 861 and 26 CFR 1.861.1. Et seq., as the only "source" for income tax purposes promulgated by 8 the Secretary is contained in this section I have no federal income tax liability, as I had no
9 income from any source listed. The term "earned income" means wages, salaries, professional 10 fees, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered
11 including the fair market value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash. Earned
12 income is foreign earned income, and must come from sources wholly outside the United States,
13 as evidenced by 26 CFR § 1.911-3, and 1RM 3(38) (147) 7.1.

14 The face of Form 1040 indicates that it originates with the "Department of the Treasury, Internal 15 Revenue Service". I cannot determine who or what this "agency" is, or when or how it 16 originated. Apparently, neither the Department of Treasury nor the National Archives or 17 Records Administration is able to determine who or what the "Internal Revenue Service" is?? I 18 cannot file any private financial information with the "Department of the Treasury, Internal 19 Revenue Service", since the IRS and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Service are entities of 20 unknown power and duties. No confidential financial information will be provided to either,
21 nor agents of either, unless and until I can be provided with the documents which state the origin,
22 powers and duties of these entities, duly recorded in the Federal Register.

23 It appears that the "Internal Revenue" is the Puerto Rico special (trust) fund, as evidenced by 31
24 USC § 1321 (62), and "Internal Revenue" is the Philippines special (trust) fund, as evidenced by 25 31 USC §1321 (2). I have incurred no liability to either the Philippines special fund or the Puerto 26 Rico special fund. It may be a quaint notion, but possibly the Internal Revenue Service could 27 publish in the Federal Register, it's Structure and field offices and other recordings which are 28 mandated by Congress for Agencies of Government by Title 5 USC § 552(a). This certainly 29 would be helpful to all, and reduce the uncertainty that I now feel with a purported agency of 30 government, which is invisible to the law. The Form 1040, if processed, would be processed
31 under the supervision and authority of the Commissioner, Internal Revenue Service. No authority

14 Sue Taylor, Sui Juris THE END OF DOCUMENT

16 Neither the Commissioner, IRS nor any Director has contacted Movant to rebut this filing. So by 17 the laws of estoppel, the IRS does not have any authority to charge Movant with any indictment.
18 The IRS is aware of this letter; the green cards that were returned are also published in this 19 document.

20 The IRS should be sanctioned for the fraud they are perpetuating on this court. The 21 Prosecutor was also aware of this before he convened the Grand Jury. If the laws of this country
22 do not apply equally to everyone, then we might as well burn them all and stretch out our hands 23 to the gallows.

24 Movant respectfully submits this as evidence of filing returns and therefore cannot be charged
25 with willful failure to file. If there is no requirement to file, there can be no evasion. Movant
26 demands this indictment be DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

28 WITHOUT PREJUDICE

29 Pursuant to UCC 1-308: "I reserve my right not to be compelled to perform under any
