8
9 MOTION for BILL of PARTICULARS

10 COMES NOW the Alleged Defendant, by special appearance only and without waiver
11 of challenges to jurisdiction, pursuant Rule 7(f) FRCrP, to state:

12 1) This Alleged Defendant comprehends that a Bill of Particulars cannot “cure” a 13 defective or insufficient indictment or information, nevertheless because the Indictment
14 here does not properly comply with Rule 7(c) FRCrP in that the Information does not cite 15 or otherwise specify the particular statute, or section thereof, allegedly violated, nor cite
16 or identify a particular administrative regulation (if any) supposedly violated, this 17 Alleged Defendant is extremely handicapped and cannot understand how or even if an 18 unspecified statute or regulation might have been violated.

- 19 2) In particular, this Alleged Defendant needs to know the following specific things:
- 20 (a) What statute, or section thereof, imposes a duty or requirement “to 21 make an income tax return”?
  - 22 (b) IF a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return” was or has 23 been imposed by an administrative rule or regulation, this 24 Alleged Defendant needs a copy of the applicable rule or regulation.
  - 25 (c) What statute, or section thereof, imposes a duty or requirement “to 26 make an income tax return TO said District Director of the Internal 27 Revenue Service”? (emphasis added to clarify this point)
  - 28 (d) IF a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO said District Director of the Internal Revenue Service” was or has been imposed by an administrative rule or regulation, this Alleged Defendant needs a copy of the applicable rule or regulation.
  - (e) What statute, or section thereof, imposes a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO said Director of the Internal Revenue Service Center”? (emphasis added for clarification)

Pursuant to U.S.C. 28 §1746 (1)
Without the United States,

- (f) IF a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO said Director of the Internal Revenue Service Center” was or has been imposed by an administrative rule or regulation, this Alleged Defendant needs a copy of the applicable rule or regulation.
- (g) What statute, or section thereof, imposes a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO any proper officer of the IRS.”? (emphasis added to clarify this point).
- (h) IF a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO any proper officer of the IRS” was or has been imposed by an administrative rule or regulation, this Alleged Defendant needs a copy of the applicable rule or regulation.
- (i) What statute, or section thereof, imposes a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO any other proper officer of the United States.”? (emphasis added to clarify this point).
- (j) IF a duty or requirement “to make an income tax return TO any other proper officer of the United States” was or has been imposed by an administrative rule or regulation, this Alleged Defendant needs a copy of the applicable rule or regulation.
- (k) What statute or section thereof, defines the difference between the “United States” and the “United States of America”? This Alleged Defendant needs a copy of the applicable Statute or section.
- (l) If an Indictment is issued under the name of the “United States of America” as plaintiff, the Alleged Defendant needs a copy of real party in interest.
- (m) Please define the phrase “United States of America” as used as plaintiff in the Indictment. Who is the real party in interest?
- (n) Please define the phrase “any proper officer of the United States” as used in the Indictment. Does this phrase refer to a de jure officer of the United States as appointed by the President of the U.S. pursuant Article II, §2 of the Constitution? Or does it refer to some other claimed to be “officer of the United States”? Specify the WHO that “other proper officer” is!
- (o) Is the language of “fail to make an income tax return” a cryptic euphemism used in lieu of a direct and positive statement of “fail to file an income tax return”?

This Alleged Defendant cannot understand a so-called “charge” not made nor can a defense be effective.

THEREFORE: The government attorney(s) should be required to reply and respond to all of the above. Be it so ordered.
