

To approach the well worn subject of representation while the parties are trying to reach a settlement that would keep the costs to a destitute person such as widow Maria D. Forman is unconscionable. In addition, the Plaintiff proceeded in direct violation of the advice and suggestion of the Court that the correct avenue in the instant case was to pursue a settlement, supposedly because of the small amount of taxes allegedly due and the large cost of litigation.

The government's attorney, with its boiler plate canned motions, seemingly has attempted to take advantage of the contractual trust because of its representation by a non-attorney.

Wherefore, the above premises considered, Defendant prays that this Court will sanction the Plaintiff for submitting a "Motion to Strike All Pleading and Documents Filed by Elmer P. Vild on Behalf of DLP LT 13" when she knew or should have known it was in direct violation of Nevada and Arizona law.

Respectfully submitted this 26th day of October, 2010.

Elmer P. Vild, Trustee
