UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
ARIZONA

United States of America, entity plaintiff)	Case No. 2:09-cv-00444-SRB
v)	Alternative Motion to Continue for cause
Maria D. Forman, et al pro per Respondents)

Respondent Chisum, in his proper person appearing specially now moves the court for an order continuing all processes until after transfer to halfway house.

Respondent is a federal inmate and unable to schedule and attend needed meetings or execute processes for discovery from here.

Respondent needs a minimum 60 days notice of any meetings or appearances in order to apply for the extrordianay benefit of furlough for civil process.

Plaintiff can not be further damaged by a delay until December one or the first available dates thereafter.

Respondent is currently scheduled to be tñsferred to halfway house October 19, 2010. By December 1, 2010, respondent should have the ability to deal properly with the processes and procedures required for justice to be done in this matter.

Please reschedule the Attorneys meeting and all other elements of scheduling until after that date for the best opportunity for justice to be done.

Respondent is an essential party to the fair execution of justice in this matter.

Delay injures noone and aids in the execution of justice.

Wherefore respondent Chisum moves for contiuance or rescheduling to after December 1, 2010.

Prepared and respectfully submitted this 31 day of March, 2010.
