IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

United States of America	)	No. CR 10-400-PHX-MHM
Plaintiff,	)	ORDER
vs.	)
Janice Sue Taylor,	)
Defendant.	)

On August 2, 2010, the Court denied a variety of motions to quash filed by witnesses Ronald J. McBride and Desiree E. Saunders [specifically, Mr. McBride’s Motion to Quash Subpoena Duces Tecum (Doc. 14), Ms. Saunders’ Motion to Quash Subpoena Duces Tecum (Doc. 15), Ms. Saunders’ Motion for Transcripts (Doc. 36), Mr. McBride’s Motion for Transcripts (Doc. 38), and Ms. Saunders’ Second Motion for Transcripts (Doc. 40)]. (Doc. 41). Both Mr. McBride and Ms. Saunders each subsequently filed Petitions for Reconsideration to Quash Subpoena and the Order to Produce Documents (Docs. 44 and 45). However, neither Petition articulates any nonfrivolous legal basis for the Court to reconsider its prior Order. Accordingly, both Petitions are denied. (Docs. 44 and 45).

Also on August 2, 2010, the Court in the same Order set a pretrial compliance deadline of August 10, 2010. The Government recently notified the Court that this deadline had passed without compliance. (Doc. 46). Ordinarily, witnesses would be expected to comply with the Court’s pretrial deadlines irrespective of any petitions for reconsideration; however, the Court

1 will make a one-time exception to this rule based on the assumption that the witnesses held
2 a good faith but mistaken belief that their Petitions for Reconsideration were a legally
3 justifiable reason to fail to comply with the Court's pretrial compliance deadline.

4 However, the Court is hereby ordering both witnesses to comply with the 5 Government's trial subpoenas that were issued and served on them several months ago. This 6 Order will not be excused by the filing of any future Petitions for Reconsideration or any 7 other legal documents attempting to delay compliance. Mr. McBride and Ms. Saunders shall
8 have until August 20, 2010 to comply with the Court's Order or face contempt proceedings
9 pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 17(g). Failing to comply with the Court's 10 Order could result in Mr. McBride and/or Ms. Saunders being held in contempt by the Court.
11 Being held in contempt would most likely result in incarceration. Mr. McBride and Ms.
12 Saunders are hereby warned that this is their final opportunity to comply with the 13 government's requests without facing sanctions by the Court. No further excuses for 14 noncompliance will be accepted.

15 Accordingly,

16 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED denying witness McBride's and witness Saunders'
17 Petitions for Reconsideration. (Docs. 44,45). Mr. McBride and Ms. Saunders are ordered
18 to produce the requested records to the government no later than August 20, 2010.

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED directing the Clerk of Court to send a copy of this
20 Order to Ronald J. McBride at P.O. Box 982, Florence, AZ 85132 and to Desiree Saunders,
21 3341 Arianna Court, Gilbert, AZ 85298.

22 DATED this 12th day of August, 2010.
