5 vs.
6 Janice Sue Taylor,
7 Alleged Defendant

Case No: CR-10-400-PHX-MHM
Demand to Dismiss Improper Plaintiff

8
9 DEMAND TO DISMISS IMPROPER PLAINTIFF

10 COMES NOW the Alleged Defendant, by special appearance in challenge of 11 jurisdiction, to show the court a lack of authority, as follows:

- 12 1) The In dictment names " UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" as being the 13 Plaintiff without explaining or more particularly describing who or what that 14 "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" is.
15 2) The nature of the Indictment as presented seems to deliberately utilize an 16 implication to the end that the unaware will assume that the "UNITED STATES OF 17 AMERICA" is or refers to the federal government; and the gullible won't question
18 the subterfuge.
19 3) The facts are that as generally used the United States of America is an 20 abstraction which refers to the fifty states which collectively comprise the union of 21 States known by that name. The United States of America has not been 22 constituted by law as a government in a sense of federal government; there is no
23 government entity by that name. That which is referred to sub-nominee "United 24 States of America" is not an entity competent to sue, or be sued, and it cannot be 25 a real party in interest.

4) Because there is no government entity by the name of United States of America or UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, there is no Plaintiff before the court which this court can recognize as an entity competent to proceed.

THEREFORE: Because of the lack of a legally cognizable plaintiff this Indictment must be dismissed, or evidence be entered into this court proving who the real party in interest is. Be it so ordered.
