Dear Chief Clerk:

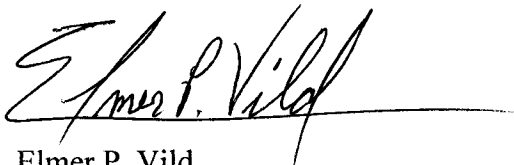

I have received the enclosed letter addressed to Exeter Trinity Properties LLC (Exeter) in care of Terry Major. Please be advised that Mr. Major is a only caretaker and has no ownership, control or management duties under the people who own and operate the property formerly owned by Exeter. This Court seems to be terribly misinformed of the ownership, control and management of the property located at 1001 S. 6th Street, Cottonwood, Arizona.

Previously, the government through attorney Charles M. Duffy, the Clerk of this Court and Judge John W. Sedwick have been notified that Exeter Trinity Properties, L.L.C. has been terminated and no longer exists. In fact, the Arizona Corporation Commission finally approved Exeter's application for termination. See the attached Exhibit A.

The entity known as Timeless Windsor Ventures (Timeless) at 989 S. Main St., #A-269, Cottonwood, Arizona has bought Exeter's only asset which was real property located at 1001 S. 6th Street in Cottonwood, Arizona. Any future correspondence regarding this property should be address to Timeless or Elmer P. Vild at 989 S. Main St., #A-269, Cottonwood, Arizona 86326.

Consequently, since Exeter no longer exists, all mail directed to it has been, and is being, returned. Any future mail addressed to Exeter will not be accepted. Please cease any further correspondence addressed to this terminated entity.

Sincerely,

Elmer P. Vild
Major, USAF, Ret.
