596 the carry out. The minimum wage was $2.35.
597
598 A: Yeah.
599
600 A5: But I didn't say to myself, you know, I wanna live on this forever.
601
602 A: Yeah.
603
604 A5: I'm gonna be a carry out for the rest of my life.
605
606 A: Exactly.
607
608 A5: It's stupid.
609
610 A: Yup. Yup. (Unintelligible).
611
612 A5: So if I have a job that maybe doesn't - that maybe I have - I want somebody to sweep
613 the sidewalks and I think it's only worth $5 an hour. That means I can't hire somebody
614 to sweep the side- that means I gotta do it myself.
615
616 A: Yup. Yup. I don't get it.
617
618 A5: Y- it - it's just - it - it - the government has no business being involved in schools, being 619 involved in marriage, being involved in education, being involved in - in - in - in, uh, in -
620 in employment.
621
622 A: Yeah.
623
624 A5: Their job is to do two things. Protect our rights and make sure that nobody gets in that 625 comes across the border without, uh, you know, some documentation or having some 626 kind of, uh, border protection.

627

628 A: Yeah.

629

630 A5: Like at your house - you have border protection 'cause you don't want somebody
631 comin' in your house.

632

633 A: Yeah.

634

635 A5: I mean - somebody comes in your house you blow his brains out. You know? But I
636 mean that - these are the two things they're supposed to do and those are the two
637 things they don't do. And it pisses me off.

638

639 A: Well and I hope (bic) point is around forever and I hope that's the new currency. You
640 gotta keep it going.

641

642 A5: There's no hoping. It - it already is.

643

644 A: Yup.

645

646 A5: It already is.

647

648 A: And right now it does what I need. I need to take my cash and I need to get it to 649 somebody without havin' to drive across the country.

650

651 A5: Exactly. I have a guy...

652

653 A: And that's the only way to do it.

654

655 A5: ...right now - his wife is getting a bonus who works for a, uh, a (unintelligible).

656

657 A: I had to deal with cops pullin' me over and tryin' to feed my money.
