You don't have better places to put your money... You have OTHER places to put your money. (where you will make a hell of a lot less bro) I highly doubt you are making 1000% a year returns.

The decisions you make in life can be tracked based on simple acts of discipline or simple errors of judgement. Im sorry you're choosing to make another error by failing to see whats in store for the future.

Regardless, you will be using Bitcoin in the future, just like how you eventually started using the internet. You're just going to end up using it when all the rest of the slow, feeble minded people finally figure it out, when its $50,000 a bitcoin or so. Then you'll be able to tell them, "I had a chance to get in before Bitcoin was a $10,000 and I blew it because I chose to live in fear."

Am I calling your decision retarded. Absolutely.

Why?

Because I have a moral obligation to. :) Every person I told to buy Bitcoin at $1 and then $10, then $100, then $1000 and now its $8000 a bitcoin... Everyone of them, some times dozens a week, come back to me and say, "Hey man, I was retarded. Why didn't you slap me and tell me to shut up and just do it." Like its my fault that they made a bad decision and didn't listen... And I say, "Yes, you were stupid. You should have listened to me. I told you so but you were too hard headed and fearful to figure it out."

Ive done my part [REDACTED] so you can't blame me. :) If we ever meet in person, ill be able to say, "I told ya so" face to face bro. Happy thanksgiving :)

Cheers

Yeah, I'm retarded all right.

Got better places to put my money. Plus I don't like the way they don't respond to support requests.

Back in September/October I filled out the Refund US form and received message the refund would be coming. No refund has arrived and my last several messages to the company have gone unanswered. What's going on here? Have they just taken the money and run?
